

Distance Education

APPALACHIAN STATE UNIVERSITY

EDUCATION SPECIALIST DEGREE IN HIGHER EDUCATION

COMMUNITY COLLEGE & UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP

COHORT PROPOSED FOR FALL 2016 FORSYTH COUNTY

- Accepting applications until June 1, 2016 or until cohort is filled. A master's degree is required to apply.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

- Develops informed, thoughtful, creative, and effective leaders in community colleges, universities, and college transition programs.
- Up to 30 credit hours transfer into App State's doctoral program in Educational Leadership.
- Find out more at: highered.appstate.edu

PROGRAM DELIVERY

- Part-Time, Hybrid (30% or more online delivery)
- Two courses per term, including summers (one course will meet on a weeknight and the other will meet on up to 5 Saturdays)
- Proposed Graduation Date: Spring 2018

CONTACT

Bronwen Sheffield, Program Manager

web distance.appstate.edu

email distance@appstate.edu

phone 800.355.4084

CAREER OPTIONS

Graduates are typically employed in upper-level management, and administrative positions in colleges and universities, in areas such as:

- Academic administration
- Admissions
- Advising
- Athletics
- Career development
- Distance education
- Financial aid
- Institutional research
- Marketing and advancement
- Multicultural student development
- Student success programs

Check out tuition rates at distance.appstate.edu/financial-information

Appalachian
STATE UNIVERSITY.